

Directions to our Church:

First Presbyterian Church is located across the street from the YMCA on South Franklin and Northampton Streets in Wilkes-Barre. From the 309 Cross Valley Expressway, take exit 3 and head south on River street. Once past the Courthouse move into the left lane and continue to Northampton Street, make the left turn and the church is on your left at the corner of Northampton and Franklin Streets. From South River Street, heading north, turn right onto Northampton. Metered parking is available during the week On Franklin Street. There is private parking behind the church, accessible from Northampton street. Call the church office for permission to park since towing is enforced.